

Success in lithium hunt

ADELAIDE junior explorer Maximus Resources is having some early success in its search for lithium in WA.

The company said its first exploration program at Spargoville had discovered high-grade lithium-bearing pegmatite, or hard rock ore, from preliminary rock chip sampling, with some exceptional grades.